

How can we ensure that all students in Hawai'i have access to high-quality 'āina-based education?

Learn how here.

COVID-19: Resources for Nonprofits
HANO Website

Warmer temperatures. Extreme weather. Rising seas. How is Hawai'i responding?

Find out more | He Lono Moku

BLOG: "'O ke kahua ma mua, ma hope ke kūkulu"

by Sanoe K. Burgess (Summer Intern 2020)

My time with Hau'oli Mau Loa Foundation reminds me of one of my favorite 'ōlelo no'eau, 'o ke kahua ma mua, ma hope ke kūkulu (Establish the foundation, then grow). Time and time again, I have come to better understand the only way to grow and move forward in life is to first form in a solid foundation. Continue reading Sanoe's blog here.

Summer Intern Project: An Affordable Housing Resource

A Categorically Organized Annotated Bibliography

We have found that asking our Summer Intern to complete a project is a good way for the intern to dig a little more deeply into something of substance; to extend their learning and demonstrate their capabilities; and to produce something of value for the Foundation. This year our summer intern, Sanoe Burgess, completed several projects. One of the projects she completed is an annotated bibliography of a range of resources related to the topic of affordable housing. Read more here.