Hauʻoli Mau Loa Foundation – Graduate Assistantship Opportunity in Botany

Hauʻoli Mau Loa Foundation (www.hauolimauloa.org) and the College of Natural Sciences are pleased to announce the availability of one graduate assistantship for local students dedicated to careers in natural resource management in the state of Hawaiʻi. The assistantship comes with generous support for two years (2nd year pending satisfactory academic performance), including a Graduate Assistantship ($20,472 plus fringe benefits – step 6), a full tuition remission, and additional funds to be used for attendance costs (e.g., books, fees, travel to local and national conferences, and supplies).

The overall goal of the Hauʻoli Mau Loa graduate assistantships is to develop the next generation of natural resource management leaders in Hawaiʻi. The following eligibility criteria apply: (i) good academic standing (minimum GPA of 3.0 prior to and throughout the assistantship); (ii) from Hawaiʻi, as evidenced by graduating from a Hawaiʻi high school; (iii) pursuing a M.S. degree in Botany; (iv) track record of supporting Hawaiʻi’s environment (e.g., internships, volunteer opportunities, etc.) and serving in a leadership capacity (academic, athletic, extracurricular, and/or professional); and (v) commitment to pursuing and attaining a long-term career in natural resource management in Hawaiʻi.

Application Details:

(1) If you are not currently a Botany graduate student, you must apply to the M.S. program by:

   a. Submitting all required application materials to the Department of Botany by December 15, 2017, please see http://www.botany.hawaii.edu/graduate-program/ for specific application and program details; and

   b. Submitting an additional essay (~2 pages, single spaced) clearly describing how you meet the five eligibility criteria listed above (send essay by January 15, 2018 to asherwoo@hawaii.edu with “Hauʻoli Mau Loa Assistantship Application” in the subject line).

(2) Current Botany graduate students are eligible to apply if they have completed <10 credit hours as of August 1, 2018. Submit: (a) the essay described above; (b) a letter of recommendation from your advisor; and (c) transcripts (unofficial are fine) to asherwoo@hawaii.edu with “Hauʻoli Mau Loa Assistantship Application” in the subject line.

Successful applicants are expected to begin their M.S. graduate degree program in August 2018. Review of applications will begin on January 15, 2018. Please contact Alison Sherwood, Chair of Botany, with any questions regarding this program (808-956-3930; asherwoo@hawaii.edu).
